Unsafe Havens I:
Investigation and Prosecution of Technology-Facilitated
Child Sexual Exploitation
June 23-27, 2014, AOL Headquarters, Dulles, VA

Unsafe Havens I offers training for prosecutors handling technology-facilitated crimes against children. Utilizing a mixture of lectures, case studies, computer forensics, emerging technologies and small group discussions, prosecutors will gain in depth understanding of the emerging technology and best practices for building strong cases. The training is designed to follow the trajectory of a typical case from initiation of investigation, pretrial considerations, case presentation, to appellate considerations. In addition, experts will present on: medically proving age of children in exploitation cases, psychological issues regarding offender behavior, human trafficking, cognitive development of children, and compliant teenage victims.

Attendance fee = None

Application deadline: May 9

This training is by application and 50 prosecutors will be selected to attend (notifications sent out by May 14).
